

International Workshop at the University of Bremen, 31st of October and 1st of November 2013
Zentrum für Sozialpolitik, Unikom, Room: 3380, Mary-Somerville-Straße 3, 28359 Bremen

Beyond the Family Wage

Gender, Wages and Household Income in Germany and Abroad

31st of October

12.00 Arrival and welcome with brunch

12.20 Introduction by Dorothea Voss Dahm (Hans-Böckler Stiftung)

I. Wage Dynamics in Germany

12.30 The family wage in historical perspective
Karin Gottschall

13.30 Who receives 'single earner wages'? Gender and Regional Findings
Tim Schröder/Andrea Schäfer

14.45 Break

II. Household Income in Comparison

15.15 Household income of standard employees in Germany
Irene Dingeldey

16.15 Social Transfers and Income of Family Risk Groups in and out of Work
Thomas Bahle et al.

Ca. 17.15 End

19.30 Dinner

1st of November

III. How can we Define a new Living Wage?

9.00 Practice and strategies in the UK
Jill Rubery

10.00 Experience in Denmark
Per Kongshoj Madsen

11.00 Round Table: Learning from your neighbour? Problems and Political Strategies in Germany (Berndt Keller, Ute Klammer, Per Kongshoej Madsen, Eva Nadai, Jill Rubery, Jelle Visser)

12.00 Lunch

12.30 End of Workshop

Presentations are in general supposed to take half an hour plus half an hour for discussion